

I oppose your plan to allow a single company to own more than one media outlet in a market. Concentration of the media in the hands of a few is a disservice to the free exchange of ideas that reflect a true democracy